Section 9: Spell n Bee

Definition of Spell n Bee:

A Spelling Competition.

Rules:

1. An official will read rules 1 to 15 aloud before the beginning of each contest and, when the number of competitors has been reduced to two, he or she will read rules 16 to 17 unless those present agree unanimously to waive the reading of the rules.
2. The Pronouncer, judge(s) and other officials will be in complete charge of the contest. Any questions or protests about the spelling(s) of a word or the running of the contests must be referred to the officials immediately (before the beginning of the next round). Their decisions will be final in all matters.
NO PROTEST WILL BE ENTERTAINED AFTER THE CONTEST HAS ENDED!
3. For each contest there will be an arbiter whose duty is to hear any protests as they arise and decide on them before the contest continues. The arbiter's decision shall be final. If possible, each contest should be videotaped or recorded so that any point of contention may be reviewed.
4. This competition is open to all contestants ages 6-8 (Primary), 9-11 (Junior) and 12-14 (Intermediate).
5. In competition, all words will be chosen from official lists compiled from the Canadian Oxford Dictionary and provided by Spelling Bee officials. The official list is the final spelling authority for the competition.
6. Preliminary Rounds will be held in each Region, using official wordlists, and the listed rules and regulations.
7. The competition will be oral; contestants must spell the words orally and the use of pens and/or pencils and paper will not be allowed.
8. Contestants may pronounce their words before spelling them, after spelling them, or not at all.
9. For all words with capitals, the speller must indicate the capital. For example, Ottawa the speller must say "Capital O t-t-a-w-a".
10. Once a contestant has begun to spell a word, he or she may not ask for a word to be re-pronounced, defined or used in a sentence. Also, having started to spell a word, a contestant will not be given any opportunity to change letters already pronounced. A speller may retrace provided that letters and their sequence are not changed in retracing. Spellers are required to indicate capitals. Apostrophes and other punctuation are not required.
11. If a word taken from the manual is unclear to a contestant, he or she may ask for the word to be re-pronounced but will not be given a definition or a sentence, unless the word is a homophone in which case the Pronouncer must give the definition and an example sentence without being asked. The contestant must give the spelling of the word as defined, not a homophone of the word.
12. If a word has more than one acceptable spelling, any spelling listed in the word list, tie-breaker list or the Canadian Oxford Dictionary, for that word will be accepted.
Note: Rule 13 is for the tiebreaker rounds only (Please note that during the tie-breaker rounds, a new list of words is introduced. These words are not listed in the Official Primary, Junior or Intermediate Study List, 2014 Edition.)
13. If a tiebreaker word is unclear to a contestant, it is the responsibility of the contestant to request that the word be re-pronounced, defined and/or used in a sentence. The Pronouncer will grant the request(s) until the officials agree that the word has been made reasonably clear to the contestant. If a word is a homophone, the Pronouncer must give the definition and an example sentence without being asked.

14. Officials may disqualify any contestant who ignores a request to start spelling his or her word within a reasonable length of time. Also, A SPELLER WHOSE SPELLING OF A WORD IS NOT AUDIBLE TO THE OFFICIALS MAY HAVE HIS OR HER SPELLING RULED INCORRECT.
15. When a speller fails to spell a word correctly, the next contestant will be given the same word to spell. If every contestant in a round misspells the same word, all contestants will remain in the competition.
16. The elimination procedure changes when the number of contestants is reduced to two. At this point, when one contestant misspells a word, the other contestant will be given the opportunity to spell the same word.
17. If the second contestant spells the word correctly, plus the next word on the pronouncer's list, then he or she will be declared champion. If the contestant misspells the word on the pronouncer's list, then both spellers continue in the contest.
18. If both contestants misspell the same word, then both continue in the contest.

Attire: School Uniform.

Section 10: Debating

Definition of Debating:

A formal discussion on a particular matter in a public meeting or legislative assembly, in which opposing arguments are put forward and which usually ends with a vote.

Time Limit per Item: 15 minutes maximum

Rules:

High school students only (Grade 8-12)

1. There are two teams, each consisting of two or three speakers.
2. Each team has two or three constructive speeches, and two to three rebuttal speeches. The affirmative gives the first constructive speech, and the rebuttals alternate: negative, affirmative, negative, affirmative. The affirmative has both the first and last speeches of the debate.
3. When worded as a proposition of policy, the topic requires the affirmative to support some specified action by some individual or group. The affirmative has the right to make any reasonable definition of each of the terms of the proposition. If the negative challenges the reasonableness of a definition by the affirmative, the judge must accept the definition of the team that shows better grounds for its interpretation of the term.
4. The affirmative must advocate everything required by the topic itself. No revision of position of a team is permitted during the debate.
5. He who asserts must prove. In order to establish an assertion, the team must support it with enough evidence and logic to convince an intelligent but previously uninformed person that it is more reasonable to believe the assertion than to disbelieve it. Facts must be accurate. Visual materials are permissible, and once introduced, they become available for the opponents' use if desired.
6. In the questioning period, the questioner may ask any fair, clear question that has a direct bearing on the debate. The questioner may use the period to build up any part of his own case, to tear down any part of his opposition's case, or to ascertain facts, such as the opposition's position on a certain issue, that can be used later in the debate. The questioner must confine himself to questions and not make statements, comments, or ask rhetorical questions.
7. Each speaker is questioned as soon as he concludes his constructive speech. The witness must answer the questions without consulting his colleagues.
8. No new constructive arguments may be introduced in the rebuttal period. The affirmative must, if possible, reply to the major negative arguments before the last rebuttal.
9. The judge must base his decision entirely on the material presented, without regard for other material which he may happen to possess.
10. Any gains made outside of the established procedure are disallowed

Topics:

Grade 8-9 (Time Limit 15 min)

Climate change is the greatest threat facing humanity today.

Every citizen should be mandated to perform national public service.

Grade 10-12 (Time Limit 15 min)

11.3 Cold Read

Definition of Reading:

The read-through, table-read, or table work is a stage of film, television, radio and theatre production when an organized reading around a table of the screenplay or script by the actors with speaking parts is conducted.

Time Limit per Item: 3 minutes maximum

Rules:

1. Prior to the tournament, the tournament staff will choose and cut written selections to be used for each round.
2. The selections should be between 450 and 550 words. 550 words are approximately 4 minutes. An attempt should be made to have each piece roughly the same number of words as the other pieces in the room.
3. Selections may come from a wide variety of genres including, but not limited to: Novels, short stories, poetry, children's books, Scripture passages, newspaper articles, periodicals, textbooks, fables, magazines, and obituaries. Written pieces may all come from the same source if desired (e.g. book, play, etc.).
4. To ensure a level playing field, all of the pieces chosen for a particular round should be from the same genre, and as much as they are able, the tournament should try to equalize the type of content. Each round must have a unique selection for each competitor in the room.
5. Students may present in any order; selections need not be distributed by speaker order.
6. The written selections should be placed in a manila envelope before the round begins. An envelope will be distributed to one judge in each room at ballot administration.
7. In the room, the competitor will draw one script provided by the tournament.
8. Speaker may not add or delete words.
9. Students will leave the selection in the room after presentation. This selection will be returned to the judge and may not be reused.
10. If needed, the judges may refer to the returned scripts after the round.

Cold Reading Presentation Rules:

1. In the room, the competitor will draw one (1) selection provided by the tournament.
2. The competitor will be given a maximum of two (2) minutes of preparation time. Preparation time begins as soon as the competitor receives his or her piece. During this time the student may write notations that will not be spoken in the round.
3. The competitor may only read what is on the selection; they may not improvise by adding or deleting words in the script.
4. The timekeeper will start the digital timepiece when the competitor receives the piece and will give verbal countdown signals every thirty (30) seconds until two (2) minutes have elapsed.
5. When the two-minute preparation time is complete. The competitor will begin his reading of the selection.
6. Presentation should be appropriate to the context of the piece.
7. The competitor may use whatever vocal and physical techniques are appropriate to present the selection, including but not limited to, gestures, voices, facial expressions, and movement. If visuals (e.g. pictures in a children's book) are provided in the piece, students may incorporate them into the presentation.
8. Use of additional props, costumes, and audio or visual aids is prohibited.
9. Only feet may touch the floor at any time.
10. Once presentation is over, the student must return the selection before leaving the room. In addition, the student may not tell other competitors what genre or category of writing is being used.
11. The competitor may not listen to other Cold Reading competitors speaking before him. Competitors may stay after giving their presentation to listen to subsequent speeches.
